Title: Programme management, coordination and specialist support for Shared Island Project/GLI
Description: Irish Lights has secured Shared Island funding to support its strategic objectives under Focus Area 4 (FA4) of Safe Seas – Connected Coasts 2025–2030, to protect its physical, cultural and natural heritage and share its maritime history with future generations. Irish Lights requires additional programme management, coordination and specialist support for the next three years to support the delivery. This Programme Management Support will be the programme's first procurement package, secured through public tender and will provide the additional capacity and expertise needed to deliver the individual Shared Island projects and support the GLI Strategy. In order to mobilise the programme, we aim to appoint a service provider early in 2027.
