Justification for the duration of the framework agreement: The framework agreement will be for a maximum period of Ten Years (10) years. The initial framework will be for two years, with the option to extend by 24 months, with four such extensions permitted subject to annual review. A maximum of ten (10) years in total. The extended duration of the framework is justified on the grounds of the considerable disruption that a change within a shorter period would entail, due to the specialist technical knowledge required and the significant capital investment involved. As this system is used for research purposes, maintaining continuity is critical to ensure data integrity, consistent methodology, and reliable outcomes.
