Title: MI-CFT26-005 the provision of Specialist Socio-Economic Analysis Services

Description: The Marine Institute invites tenders to this request for tenders from economic operators for the provision of specialist socio-economic analysis services to support the delivery of the Marine Institute Socioeconomics Programme. Provide statistical and analytical support to assess socio-economic impacts of marine/maritime activities on coastal communities and Ireland's ocean economy. Perform economic analysis of Irish marine and coastal economy datasets, at national, regional, and county levels. Examine linkages between the Irish economy, Ireland's ocean economy, associated downstream impacts. This includes data collection and analysis and conducting supply chain mapping. Review existing methodologies on economic impacts assessments both nationally and internationally. Contribute to technical, economic, and policy reports and communications
