Title: 26.317 Atlantic Technological University Requests Tenders for the Establishment of a Multi-Party Framework Agreement for the Supply and Delivery of Veterinary and Zoological Anatomical Teaching Aids

Description: Atlantic Technological University (ATU) is launching a new Bachelor of Veterinary Medicine and Surgery (BVMS) programme, commencing in September 2026 at its Letterkenny campus, Co. Donegal. The programme is intended to enhance access to veterinary education and contribute to the sustainability of veterinary services, particularly in rural areas across Ireland. ATU invites tenders for the establishment of a multi-party framework agreement for the supply and delivery of veterinary and zoological anatomical models, manikins, clinical training simulators, and associated teaching aids. These resources will support teaching and learning across a range of animal species within the BVMS programme. The framework agreement will be structured across nine Lots. Tenderers may apply for appointment to one or more Lots, as appropriate to their capabilities. Detailed requirements are set out in the documentation appended to this notice.
