5.1.7 Strategic procurement

Aim of strategic procurement: Reduction of environmental impacts

Description: Tenderers should note that green procurement is now mandatory for all public service providers.

Green procurement can be defined as “choosing solutions that have a reduced impact on the environment throughout their product life-cycle. Tenderers who can demonstrate the green credentials in relation to business processes, equipment used etc. will be scored higher in respect of quality. In relation to this tender, SDCC asks bidders to include information on how delivery of the service and the contract is done in accordance with green procurement.

Approach to reducing environmental impacts: The transition to a circular economy
