Title: Call for Tender for the Provision of Business Refinement Services and Transformation Support
Description: BIM wishes to invite tenders for provision of Business Refinement Support. The Contracting Authority continues to implement a programme of organisational improvement and transformation, including business process optimisation, digital transformation, service improvement initiatives, and the implementation of new systems and ways of working. The primary purpose of this tender is to provide specialist support and expertise to assist BIM in delivering ongoing business process transformation, organisational improvement initiatives, digital and systems projects, and activities arising from BIM's strategic priorities and programmes of work. The successful tenderer will support the planning, design, implementation and embedding of change initiatives across the organisation as required during the contract period. BIM estimates that the expenditure on the Services to be covered by the proposed Services Contract may amount up to €215,999 (excl. VAT) over the Term. However, the actual expenditure incurred will be contingent upon the availability of funding and budgetary approval. For further information on this tender competition, please see the accompanying tender documents.
