2.1 Procedure

Title: Multi Supplier Framework Agreement for the Provision of Legal Services for Dublin and Dún Laoghaire Education and Training Board

Description: Dublin and Dun Laoghaire Education and Training Board requires the services of a legal provider to ensure that we receive advices to enable us to correctly apply the laws that affect the organisation in relation to, inter alia, Employment Law, Property, Estates and Conveyancing, Commercial and Corporate, Child Protection, Education Law, Human Resources and Industrial Relations, Pensions, Information, FOI and Data Protection, Cyber Security, IP, Patent and AI and employee benefits. The Contracting Authority requires up to date consistent advice which can be implemented in the confidence that it is legally robust and will stand up to challenges by third parties. Notification of upcoming changes to national policies as well as legislation would be beneficial but is not required. Advice will also be required to enable Dublin and Dun Laoghaire Education and Training Board to interpret and implement new legislation as it is being passed into law and enable the Contracting Authority to adapt its procedures and policies to affect same. Dublin and Dun Laoghaire Education and Training Board may also require advices and representation in respect of litigation, including court attendance, representation at public hearings, dispute resolution including conciliation, arbitration, and ADR.
