5.1.10 Award criteria

Criterion:

Type: Quality

Name: Quality

Description: It was considered necessary to appoint a candidate with a demonstrable history of working within the sports sector given the unique aspects of its governance. The sector is characterised by a self-governing model, heavy reliance on volunteerism and guided by the principle of sporting autonomy. The candidate identified is a sports governance specialist who has worked with a range of sports organisations to strengthen governance structures, including the Football Association, the International Paralympic Committee and smaller voluntary sporting bodies.
