Title: SRFT for the Provision of Legal Services to the Insolvency Service of Ireland (ISI)
Description: Insolvency Service of Ireland requires the services of a legal provider to ensure that we receive advices to enable us to correctly apply the laws that affect the organisation as a statutory body and in carrying out its functions under the 2012 Act. The Contracting Authority requires up to date consistent advice which can be implemented in the confidence that it is legally robust and will stand up to challenges by third parties. The provision of legal services and advice in respect of the following areas is likely to be required during the duration of the Contract. This list is non-exhaustive and other legal services may be required during the duration of the Contract: (1) Administrative Law • Advising on the duties and responsibilities of the Insolvency Service of Ireland and the Official Assignee; • Advising on the operation of the Personal Insolvency Acts and the Bankruptcy Acts and the adaptation of the Insolvency Service of Ireland's procedures and policies to affect same; • Advising on the ISI's obligations under GDPR and the Data Protection Act 2018, the Freedom of Information Act 2014, the Protected Disclosures Act 2014 and other legislation relevant to a statutory body; • Advising on the law and procedure of public procurement. (2) Professional Regulation • Advising the ISI on its authorisation, supervisory and regulatory functions under the Personal Insolvency Acts. (3) Litigation and Dispute Resolutions • Providing legal advice and legal representation in legal proceedings or disputes taken by or against the Insolvency Service of Ireland and/or the Official Assignee which may require representation at court, public hearings, arbitrations. Insolvency Service of Ireland may, at all times, enter into separate contracts for the provision of any or all legal services. Please note that the Insolvency Service of Ireland has a framework agreement in place for the provision of legal services on individual bankruptcy cases.
